

November 22, 2022

End-of-year breakfast (Hope you're coming!)

For those interested, Lester Niss will be leading a walk at St Stithian's on Sunday November 27 before the breakfast.

Meet at 07h00 in the Higher Ground Restaurant parking area.

St. Stithians College Property
40 Peter Place
Randburg, Johannesburg
(Map on Page 2)

You might see: Neddicky, Hamerkop, Bar-Throated Apalis, Pied Barbet, Cisticolas, Cuckoo's, Honey Buzzard, Sparrow hawks, Indigo bird, Woodpeckers to name a few.

Breakfast will be at 09h30.

Link to Lance Robinson talk (15 November)

<https://hamilton.hosted.panopto.com/Panopto/Pages/Viewer.aspx?id=db6c43d2-2c5e-46e3-b24d-af4e01164896>

We had several requests for this: many thanks to our tech guru, Mike Hamilton.

Books to Explore

It's the holiday season and you need a treat, too (It's been a long, tough year!)

Take a look at the following – let me know if it's a problem to open the links.

<https://manicaa.com/catalog/product/view/id/5463327/s/the-complete-photographic-guide-to-southern-african-birds-with-app-and-calls/>

Double-click on the icon below and then open:

New Book Alert_An Ecological Guide to

Trips Away

Here's a reminder for the next Flock with Birdlife SA:

Are you joining us
at Flock to the Wild?

All that remains is for us, your committee, to wish you a very happy and peaceful holiday season. We look forward to seeing you in 2023 for another year of 20% birding, 80% fun!