

DR HANNELINE SMIT-ROBINSON
BirdLife South Africa's conservation work

Tuesday 21st April 2026

6:45pm for 7:00pm

Wanderer's Club, North Road, Illovo

We are usually in the Champions room upstairs, but please check at reception

Cost: Members – R20; Guests – R40

Join us for supper in the restaurant (for your own account). Come early - about 5:45pm.

Good food, great company!

Dr Hanneline Smit-Robinson is a biodiversity conservation specialist.

As Head of Conservation at BirdLife South Africa, she has oversight of all BirdLife South Africa's Conservation Programmes. This includes including seabird, landbird and habitat conservation, policy and advocacy engagement, regional support to BirdLife partners throughout Africa, community conservation and avitourism projects.