Good food, great company!

Professionally, Brendan Ryan's beat is financial journalism. Birdwatching is his life-long hobby, and this developed into bird photography.
Brendan co-authored the book "Go Birding in the Transvaal" – a forerunner to today's "Birding Gauteng".

Brendan's talk will provide a local and international perspective on Southern African migrants.
In line with his publishing history, he will highlight some of our best migrant "hotspots".
And look forward to some stunning photography!
